WELCOME TO THE PLOUGH ARTS CENTRE
The small venue with the big reputation!

A message from Richard Wolfenden-Brown
Director of The Plough Arts Centre

For many years we have been saying 'The Plough survives and thrives thanks to our supporters, customers, volunteers, staff and trustees. However, we continue to exist with very little core public funding which is why the charity needs your support.'

Well, now we really do...

Despite a 55% increase in audiences over the past five years, we have been experiencing financial difficulties recently because the core costs of running the building have increased dramatically, whilst funding towards these costs has been reduced. Thanks are due to all who have contributed to our crowdfunder via the website to help in the short term. You can also help by telling your local councillor and M.P. how much you value The Plough and encourage them to support us financially. We need £50,000 per year towards our core costs from 1 April 2020. Thanks for your help.

Meanwhile... we are proud, as ever, of this packed programme of events, films, exhibitions and arts workshops. Please make it your plan to 'see it at The Plough in 2020!' In addition to The Plough Arts Centre in Great Torrington we also have live events and workshops at The Plough@StAnne's in Barnstaple, live events at ThePlough@TheGeorge in South Molton, and a season of 37 open-air theatre shows at 14 regional venues across North Devon.

Several events this year are fundraisers for the Plough thanks to kind artists who have offered to help. Other events may also be added so do visit our website for details of any extras, especially Gallery Gigs. Many events in this programme are almost sold out! To receive a weekly reminder by e-mail of all that is going on and to hear first about additions to our programme, please contact julie@theploughartscentre.org.uk to join the list.

Look inside the back cover and you will see a list of all our film screenings for March/April 2020. For more details and for information on films from May – Aug 2020 please visit our website www.theploughartscentre.org.uk or pick up a monthly film flier at the box office.

The Plough Café is open Tues – Sat from 10am – 2.30pm and delicious pre-show meals are available on busy live event nights. Wherever you see ‘Evening Food Tonight!’ in this programme just call Tina on 01805 625925 to book a table.

Keen to help? You could join our e-mail list, become a supporter or a lifetime supporter, a volunteer, sponsor a seat, sponsor an event, or make a regular donation, arrange a fundraising event, be a crowdfunder, leave a legacy, or simply ‘see it at The Plough’ and come to even more events, screenings and workshops. If you want to help then please let us know. Thank you.

We look forward to welcoming you soon
Richard Wolfenden-Brown,
Director
and all Staff, Volunteers and Trustees

Simon Evans: The Work of the Devil
Tues 3 March 8pm
Simon Evans’ last show, Genius 2.0 provided an hilarious analysis of the departure of any visible sign of intelligence from modern life. But his new show raises the stakes, with his usual excoriating views of a world on fire given a perspective shift from personal revelations that turned his world upside down this year. Simon is one of the UK’s most respected and established comedians.
