The Rude Mechanicals
GODS AND DOGS
7pm Fri 24 June
Tapeley Park

This new comic dystopian allegory is set in 2084 on the fictitious island of Abatina in a world where people are either glamorous celebrities or slobbering dog-like followers of them gripped to their telephones – with the exception of the Nevnops (Not Very Nice People) as the President, Big Al, calls them.

Hotbuckle Productions

Torrington Players
CRY WITCH!
7pm Tues 28 June
& 7pm Wed 29 June
Castle Hill Gardens Torrington
£9 / £7 Supporters

Cry Witch! invites the audience to become the jury in a witch trial. Imagining themselves in the late 17th century, will they decide Guilty or not? In the process it explores a range of issues related to the place of women in that society and the ways in which communities react to negative events.

Heartbreak Productions
MUCH ADO ABOUT MURDER
7pm Thurs 30 June
Blackberry Farm Milton Damerel

Join Heartbreak Productions for some super silliness this summer. Our original murder mystery will set five suspects under the spotlight, and we will depend on the audience to find answers.
